Solicitation Policy

No items of any kind may be offered for sale in the library or on library property by patrons. Only sales connected with a library sponsored event or associated library organization and facilitated by the library staff will be allowed. No panhandling shall be allowed in the library or library grounds. Any conduct which is obstructive or disruptive and does not allow full and free use of the library facilities by patrons, including business, political and religious promotions, will not be allowed. Any or all of the above actions can be grounds for suspension of library privileges.
